DETAILED ACTION

Status of Claims

Claims 1-17 have been cancelled in this application.

New claims 18-45 are pending in this application.

New claims 18-45 have been rejected in this application.

Response to Amendment

The amendments to the claims have been received and acknowledged by the Examiner.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Also, applicant has traversed the double patenting rejection. The claims are considered to be product by process claims and the product is the same therefore, the claims are obvious over one another. Therefore again, the provisional rejection on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 22 and 23, and 1, and 1 of copending application nos. 11/739,345, 10/418,103, and 10/570,199 respectively, is maintained.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 18-45 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over McConnel et al (US 6,235,924).

Applicant claims a composition comprising a benzoate mixture of isononyl benzoate and one or more benzoic esters whose alkoxy groups have from 7 to 13 carbon atoms, wherein said composition is produced by a process as claimed in claim 18.

Determination of the scope and content of the prior art

(MPEP §2141.01)

McConnell et al teaches a process for preparing benzoic acid esters which results in a composition of one or more benzoic acid esters. These benzoic acid esters are made from the corresponding monohydric alcohols having from 6 to 12 carbon atoms. Therefore, if a monohydric alcohol having 9 carbon atoms were to be used to prepare a benzoic acid ester, then the resulting isononyl benzoate will be present along with any other isomer of the benzoic acid ester. The tin content is not mentioned therefore, it is presumed by the Examiner to not be present.

Applicant has admitted in the background of the specification that benzoic acid esters may be used as plasticizers among other things.

Also note that the Examiner has examined these claims as product-by-process claims since a product is claimed having undergone a certain specific process.

Please also note that since there is not tin present, that there is only benzoic acid esters and isononyl benzoate present in the amount of at least 100%.

Ascertainment of the difference between the prior art and the claims

(MPEP §2141.02)

The difference between the claims and the prior art is that the prior art, McConnell et al, does not exactly teach the same process as claimed in the product-by-process claim.

Finding of prima facie obviousness

Rational and Motivation (MPEP §2142-2143)

“[E]ven though product-by-process claims are limited by and defined by the process, determination of patentability is based on the product itself. The patentability of a product does not depend on its method of production. If the product in the product-by-process claim is the same as or obvious from a product of the prior art, the claim is unpatentable even though the prior product was made by a different process.” In re Thorpe, 777 F.2d 695, 698, 227 USPQ 964, 966 (Fed. Cir. 1985) (See MPEP chapter 2113).

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
